HUMANE SOCIETY

Permanently Organized At Court House Last Evening—Secretary Trounstine of the Ohio Humane Society Gave Address.

The blithest thing in this world so fair,
Is a gay little pup with his tail in the air.

Last night at the court house a small number of Maysville and Mason county people gathered and permanently organized the Mason County Humane Society.

Mrs. T. J. Curry, temporary president, called the meeting to order and told a few of the plans of the new organization. After her remarks she introduced Mr. Oscar Trounstine of Cincinnati, secretary of the Ohio Humane Society, who gave a short talk on the work being done by his society. The main part of his address dealt with the caring of children and it really is astonishing what a great work is being done in Ohio along this line. Mr. Trounstine was one of the main factors in having the bill passed in the legislature of that state providing for the paying of a small sum to families when the fathers had been placed in the workhouse, leaving the families without any means of support.

Following Mr. Trounstine's address, the Nominating Committee reported that they had nominated the following officers, who were duly elected:

President—C. Ed. Geisel.
First Vice President—Mrs. T. J. Curry.
Second Vice President—B. H. Greenlee.

Third Vice President—W. I. Nunman.

Secretary and Treasurer—Mrs. Geo. Bishop.

Directors—Mrs. R. P. Moody, Mrs. A. Ward, Mrs. Elmer Dawning, Dr. Hochinger and W. W. Wilkoff.

Humane Officer—W. J. Nauman.

Mrs. Curry reported that 59 people had already joined the society and that many more would join as soon as the officers and members could see them.

The initiation fee is now 25 cents, and the yearly dues will be $1 for acting members and $2 for associate members.

As soon as the papers can be drawn up, the society will be incorporated at Frankfort, in order that things can be run on a business-like basis.

The need of a Humane Society in Mason county is truly great, and every good citizen is urged to enlist and so operate in this great work.

FAMOUS ORGANIST COMING.

Speaking of a performance of Gatty Sellars, the world-famed organist, who plays here on Wednesday and Thursday of this week at the Christian church, a European critic writes:

With a full remembrance of visits paid by organists of national repute, we have no hesitation in saying we have never listened locally to a greater executant than Gatty Sellars. One knew not whether the more to admire the phenomenal facility of his renderings—for movements whose technical subtleties would have appalled the more ordinary executant were rendered with unvarying smoothness and beauty of phrase—or the consummately artistic spirit with which he imbued them. Bach's D Major Fugue was finely executed, demonstrating his splendid pedaling, but there was something narrowly approximating diabolism in his "variations and Fugato Finale on an Old English Air." With elaborate variations, played absolutely allegro furioso, it was indeed wonderful that such perfect phrasing should have been produced.—Western Mercury.

Arrangements have been made so that no charge is to be made at the door, but a silver offering will be taken.

This shows that Mr. Sellars knows he can make good his claim to be an artist at the pipe-organ. It is hoped Maysville will take advantage of this opportunity to hear this noted musician. His first appearance will be at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening.

Announcement to Our Kind Friends and Patrons

On April 1st, 1915, the entire plant of The Public Ledger newspaper and The Ledger Printery, good will, etc., will become the property of Mr. Charles E. Dietrich, who has purchased same from the present owners, A. F. Curran and H. C. Curran.

Mr. H. C. Curran has owned a one-half interest in the two plants since January 1st, but has at no time been an active partner, as his time and duties were fully taken up with his office as Collector and Treasurer of the city and his agency for the Standard Oil Company, therefore the present editor of The Ledger will speak for both partners in this, our valedictory, in stepping down from the ownership and management of The Public Ledger.

For the past eight years and three months A. F. Curran has published and edited The Public Ledger and as to its merits and demerits, you, the public, is the judge.

That it has grown and prospered is very evident and we now say that it is one of the best and surest money-making propositions in the Ohio Valley.

Mr. Dietrich is buying no gold brick. The present editor of The Ledger knows that Mr. Dietrich knows the value of the plant, and at a sacrifice of a goodly sum of money we preferred for him to own the business.

Charles E. Dietrich came to Maysville about ten years ago a stranger and without money. Today he is recognized as one of Maysville's leading and hustling business men, and with the acquisition next Thursday week of this paper and the job plant, he will have a business and responsibilities which will give him much prominence in commercial and political circles. Mr. Dietrich is a practical printer, and a former well known employee of the Government Printing Office at Washington, D. C., and up to about a year ago, he was foreman of The Ledger Printery (then owned by Col. Thomas A. Davis) for over nine years; therefore, the new owner of The Public Ledger is equipped practically, both as a printer and a newspaper man, to fully meet and master the details of this business.

As for "U. S. & Co.," we feel that after 27 years of the most active kind of active newspaper work, we can well afford to sell even "a good thing," and shift the arduous business management to more competent, capable and stronger shoulders, although there is a fascination about getting out a newspaper, which, once acquired, is like love, "you never get over it." However, we have to make sacrifices in this life or something drops and now is a good time for us to step down and out.

Before we surrender, we wish to deeply thank those noble friends who have stood by us in every emergency.

We know that friendship is more than a name.

To our subscribers and advertising patrons we are indebted for the money that flowed in to make the paper succeed.

The Ledger and the advertisers and the readers worked along together and brought us over eight years of the most blessed and abundant prosperity.

We thank you all.

When Col. Thomas A. Davis founded The Daily Public Ledger in 1892, he put the highest quality of brains and experience into its columns and his writings were noted for their deep ability and keen wit.

Soon "The Little Daily" became famous as one of the most successful and aggressive newspapers in the Old Commonwealth.

Fifteen years of hard work and prosperity for Thomas A. Davis.

Eight years of hard work and prosperity for A. F. Curran.

May Charles E. Dietrich have the support of the public and the backing of his party and may a score or more of years full of good things be his.

As to Maysville, our beloved home, we do not appreciate what we have and what an ideal city we can make of it.

Right now there is a million-dollar enterprise being constructed at our doors, we have the second largest tobacco market in the world, and we have it true that there are now steps being taken to erect a new factory here to cost several hundred thousand dollars.

Pin your faith and money to Maysville.

It is a famous axiom that every damphool thinks he knows how to run a newspaper. There never was such a joke. There is not one person in a hundred thousand who can successfully make a paper go.

W-o-r-k! t-a-c-t-i-c-a-l and ability are what turns the trick.

And it's a nerve-racking enterprise at best.

The Public Ledger is a straight-out Republican newspaper and will continue so.

Its political policy is founded on the cardinal principles of the G. O. P., viz:

Protection to home industries, sound money and honor and glory for the Stars and Stripes.

Don't that listen good?

Never in the history of this glorious land of liberty was there such a demand and cry for the return to power of the party of Lincoln, McKinley,

Roosevelt and Taft; the party alone which has made the government at Washington lead all the nations of the earth. And in the approaching political battles of the two coming campaigns, it is gratifying to know that The Public Ledger will continue in the forefront, striving for the success of that great, tried and true, loyal and heroic aggregation of statesmen, scholars and diplomats, known as the Republican party.

One can only judge things by results. Look at things today!

And again: For us it is hard to say farewell to those who have known us best, treated us so kindly and liberally, pardoned our mistakes and shortcomings and aided us in every manner to pass along the rough road called human life. It seems like leaving friends and home to give you up, but Fate is a hard taskmaster and exacts the last tear and the last drop of blood.

There comes a time when the best of friends must part.

So, "Good-bye and good luck!"

Arthur F. Curran.

WONDER WHAT OLLIE STANDS FOR?

The wrath of Ollie James over the distinct announcement of McChesney, Democratic candidate for the nomination to the Governorship, that he is in favor of state wide prohibition, is only another evidence that Ollie believes he has the Democratic party and the state of Kentucky wrapped up in a neat little bundle tucked away in an inside pocket. Neither party in Kentucky can get away with the question of county unit or state wide prohibition this year. The advantage which the Republicans have is in the fact that they will formulate their platform in advance of the primary and the nominees will stand upon it. The Democratic leaders of the James stripe maintain their insistence that it is the right and the sacred and inalienable privilege of the nominees selected by the leaders to make the platform and then cram it down the throats of their following. In any event, there is no mistaking the meaning of McChesney, whether it brings him victory or sends him up Salt River. He says:

"I am in favor of state wide prohibition of the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. If nominated and elected I shall urge upon the Legislature of 1916 the passage of an act submitting a prohibition amendment to the constitution to the people for their ratification."

That is sufficiently plain, and it begins to look like there would be a fight to a finish on the question of state wide prohibition or county unit. Another trouble facing Big Ollie is in the unquestioned fact that his dear colleague, Senator Beckham, is a state wider, and that he will back McChesney is taken as a certainty. And as to Percy Haley, Percy isn't saying a word just now, but Percy is inclined to the opinion that Beckham is the great est Kentuckian ever and that neither Clay nor Crittenden, nor Carlisle nor Lindsey, nor Beck can be classed with him. Taking all things together, the Democratic party is between the Straits of Despair and the Slough of Despond, and not even Big Ollie knows what to do. He doesn't need to worry. The Republicans of Kentucky will do it this year—Frankfort letter in Sunday's Commercial-Tribune.

Many a man is like his umbrella—seldom in evidence except when he is under a cloud.

FOREIGN PURCHASERS

Dog and Cat Only Home Products—Wonders Why the Local Merchants Can't Get Along Well.

In connection with the Day at Home campaign being conducted by the Business Men's Association says the Charleston Gazette, the following has been issued by Secretary Sam Trion, as calculated to show the extent of foreign and home purchases of necessities made by some people:

"He gets up at the alarm of a Confectioner's clock; buttons his Chicago suspenders to Detroit overalls; washes his face with Cincinnati soap in a Pennsylvania pan; sits down to a Michigan (not a Parkersburg) table; eats Chicago meat and Tennessee flour, cooked with Kansas lard, on a St. Louis stove and reads a Cincinnati paper at the breakfast table. Puts a New York (not a Joe Pop) bottle on a Kentucky mule, fed with Illinois corn; plows his farm covered by a Virginia mortgage, with a Chattanooga plow. When bedtime comes he reads a chapter from a Bible printed in Boston, says a prayer written in Jerusalem; crawls under a blanket made in New Jersey (not on Glen denim street), only to be kept awake by a West Virginia dog, the only home product on his place.

"She gets up from her slumbers on a Cincinnati-made mattress; stands before a French-made mirror; adjusts her Connecticut-made hair, fastened with a Rhode Island barrette; arranges her New York complexion with and adjusts her Baltimore or Cincinnati-made gown; puts on New Jersey-made hose, buckled with Philadelphia-made supporters; luttens her Boston-made shoes and sits down on an Ohio-made chair; looks up her household necessities through a mail order catalogue; picks up her Canadian-made furs, which resemble Old Tom, a Charleston house cat; the only home product on the place, then wonders to hilly why business and employment are not better in Charleston.

"Hobby answers: 'If you buy out of town and we buy out of town and our neighbors all buy out of town and the gossamer sell all the so-called good people their family supplies at wholesale prices, for cash, what in thunder will become of our town and business?'"

TO ARGUE BECKEE APPEAL.

New York, March 23.—The final hope of former Police Lieutenant Charles W. Becker of escaping the death chair for the part he is alleged to have played in the murder of Herman Rosenthal, gambler, now rests with the Court of Appeals at Albany, which tribunal has fixed tomorrow as the time for hearing arguments on Becker's appeal from his second conviction. Should the appeal for a new trial be granted, the District Attorney in this city will immediately begin preparations to try the case for a third time at an early date. If, on the other hand, the court reaffirms the verdict of conviction, Governor Whitman will fix the date for Becker's execution.

Herman Rosenthal was shot and killed in front of the Hotel Metropole in this city early in the morning of July 16, 1912. The four "gunmen" were convicted of the actual murder and Becker was convicted as the instigator of the crime. The conviction of Becker was based on the theory that he had been a silent partner of Rosenthal in a gambling house, had extorted money from Rosenthal, and, finally, had instigated the murder when Rosenthal was to appear before the grand jury of New York courts. The motives for the murder were said by the state to be fear of exposure and hope of revenge.

Extreme care should be taken to plant the onions right side up. The tops should come out of the ground first.

MISS LINDA NEVILLE

Gives Illustrated Lecture On Blindness Before Woman's Club.

The Woman's Club had the pleasure of having Miss Linda Neville of Lexington with them at their last meeting.

Miss Neville is too well known to need an introduction to our people. She has devoted her life to the cause of education until her appointment to the position of state secretary of the Society for the Prevention of Blindness. Her lecture was illustrated by stereoscopic views of her personal experiences in fighting the dread disease trachoma, which is so largely prevalent in other sections of the state, and I regret to say, has a number of victims in our own city. Her lecture was interesting and instructive, and it is to be deplored that so small a number of our citizens heard it. Our people are too intelligent to have been kept away by apathy and indifference, for they must realize the dangerous and contagious nature of this most distressing malady, and should be anxious to receive help and instruction from one so capable of giving it.

New York.—The eggs my great grand daddy ate 100 years ago, might easily be the refrain of a popular song written about the testimony of Dr. Ernest L. Dr. Smith declared a can full of preserved Chinese eggs will keep 100 years without a sign of decay.

CRYING FOR HELP

Lots of It in Maysville But Daily Growing Less.

The kidneys often cry for help. Not another organ in the whole body more delicately constructed. Not one more important to health. The kidneys are the filters of the blood.

When they fail the blood becomes foul and poisonous. There can be no health where there is poisoned blood.

Backache is one of the frequent indications of kidney trouble. It is often the kidney's cry for help. Heed it.

Read what Doan's Kidney Pills have done for overworked kidneys. Read what Doan's have done for Maysville people.

Lang Stevens, Maysville, Ky., says: "My kidneys were out of order and I had backache, which extended into my kidneys. The kidney action was irregular. Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in my family, so I gave them a trial. They helped me greatly."

Mr. Stevens is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mr. Stevens had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. ### BELGIAN POOR NEED NOT PAY FOR FOOD.

Capt. J. P. Lacey, a member of the Commission for Relief in Belgium at 71 Broadway, New York, has issued a denial of charges made recently in the Detroit Free Press of March 9, by Ferdinand Vander Noot, a Detroit resident, that Belgians have to buy food sent by the United States.

"As for the statement that food is sold at high prices," said Captain Lacey, "I emphatically state that food is only sold to people who are well able to pay for it and are dependent upon the Commission's stores for their supplies, paying a price which allows a very small margin in excess of cost. This money is again used for the purchase of food. The destitute are fed without charge, and there are special rations for children, where a special ration is issued. In addition, a special non-rationing ration is served free to the mothers of nursing children. Meat is the only cheap commodity in Belgium at this time. The entire story is an ignorant exaggeration."

RECIPES OF OUR PIONEER MOTHERS

For the home treatment of disease were wonderfully dependable. True, they knew nothing of drugs, but owed their success to the roots, herbs and barks of the field. It is interesting to note that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the most successful remedy for female ills we have, was originally prepared for home use from one of these recipes. Its fame has now spread from store to store, and thousands of American women now well and strong claim they owe their health and happiness to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

CALL DOWN

For Chicago Newspapers—Miss Zwelgart Tells the Truth About Her Fasting.

Chicago, Ill., March 20, 1915. Editor Public Ledger.

Dear Sir—In a recent issue of your publication appeared an article copied from the Chicago Tribune regarding my "cornbread and water fast."

I earnestly regret the tone of the article which literally teems with ridiculous, nonsensical exaggerations. It seems quite the usual thing for metropolitan papers to sacrifice veracity on the altar of sensationalism and the esteemed Chicago papers are no exception to this rule.

The truth of the matter is that I have totally abstained from food for a period of 25 days in an effort to personally test the efficiency and after effects of a prolonged fast.

The allusion to "cornbread fast," "twenty-five day," etc., can be attributed to the reporter's fertile imagination. Sincerely, JENNIE M. ZWELGART.

SPARROWS ARE SKINNED

When Prepared For Eating By These Who Like Such.

Eating English sparrows is becoming a fad, or those who learn that the little birds are used in the delicatessen establishments as substitute for what is billed "rice birds," and that the patrons are unable to tell the difference, are inclined to give them a trial. A local citizen has given this tip for those who contemplate eating them. Do not attempt to pluck the feathers—skin them; and after preparing them for cooking, any of the different preparations used for quail or other small game will be sufficient. They are said to be very palatable when properly prepared.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT HOG CHOLERA.

County Demonstrator A. M. Casey attended the Hog Cholera Conference for "the control of hog cholera" at the Kentucky Experiment Station Tuesday morning and afternoon. Mr. Casey says, that judging from his own experience and that of others, as expressed at this meeting and at various other meetings and occasions, hog cholera can be kept down by more care in swine management. It is largely a matter of sanitation. Hogs kept free from worms and in sanitary quarters, all carried promptly burned or buried, lime used freely around the hog yards, plenty of good water and enough laxative food to keep the bowels in good condition is essential. Owners of herds are too prone to depend upon hog cholera serum treatment alone to keep their herds healthy.

Lack of condition, caused by constipation, worms and other troubles are a forerunner of cholera. When hogs are vaccinated extreme care should be taken with the serum that no foreign matter enters; that the temperature of the serum not rise over 10 degrees Fahrenheit, and that the operator should thoroughly know his business. No one should be allowed to use the double treatment without a special permit from the proper authorities, as an ignorant operator who does not understand the dangers of infection from the use of "Hog Cholera Virus" may start a cholera epidemic that will spread all over a community.

The use of the double treatment is a very risky business, even under perfect conditions, and no one but an expert should ever administer it, and it is not advisable to use it at all under ordinary farm conditions. The use of serum alone is not fraught with the same danger, as the serum is a preventive and does not contain cholera germs. The fact that hogs are thumpy is not necessarily an indication of cholera.

There is only one way to decide finally whether a hog has cholera or not, and that is a post mortem examination. As hogs with other troubles very often look exactly like those suffering from cholera.

Pigs are a great carrier of swine diseases, more so even than buzzards, as they fly from one feeding place to another carrying the germs of disease. In hog management it is worthy of note that water is "the principal ingredient" of the weight of a pound of flesh of most living things.

A pound of pork tenderloin consists of the following elements: Fat, 13 per cent; ash, 1 per cent; water, 66 per cent, and protein, 18 per cent.

SLOWING DOWN AT RUSSELL.

(Ashland Independent.)
Work in the Russell C. & O. division is running on a slow bell, especially down on the "hump," where many a car is handled when business is good. The railroad scribe is told only about one-third of the men are at work. Where generally 24 trains are handled on the "hump," about eight trains are now made up. Only two train crews are doing the work, with quite a number of men hid off and others put on the extra list.

THE FOUR WONDERS.

They have never ridden in an automobile, yacht or elevator. Never used a telephone. Never entered a theater. Never received callers. Never have been inside of a church in 20 years. Never made a public gift to charity.

LATEST WAR BULLETINS

Przemysl Taken By Russians.
Petrograd, March 22.—It was officially announced that the Galician fortress of Przemysl surrendered to the Russians today.

The garrison of Przemysl originally numbered 60,000 or 80,000 men, but sorties and shells must have cut a considerable number of thousands from that total. The besieging army is understood to number about 120,000 officers and men. This force will now march on the strong Austrian fortress of Cracow, 125 miles to the east of Przemysl, it being the announced termination of the Russian commander-in-chief to reduce the ancient Polish capital as speedily as possible.

The siege of Przemysl, an Austrian stronghold of the province of Galicia, has been under way since the early days of the war.

It was announced Sunday that part of the garrison made a desperate sortie and that the Russians captured 1,000. The capture of Przemysl will release a large Russian force for operations elsewhere and is a decided Russian victory.

This Is Sure A War Baby.
Paris, March 22.—One of the projectiles from the Zeppelins that rained Paris and environs yesterday fell through the roof of a residence at Lagarene into the nursery where a baby was asleep in its cradle. Almost every piece of the furniture in the room except the cradle was smashed by flying fragments. The child was not touched.

No Recognition For Villa.
Washington, March 22.—Announcement today was made at the White House that there will be no recognition of General Villa by the United States until a stable government is established in Mexico.

Italy Stops Trains.
London, March 22.—The Central News states that the Italian government today stopped all railway freight trains with Germany by way of Switzerland.

Zeppelins Scare Paris.
Paris, March 22.—Of the four Zeppelins which attacked Paris it appears certain that one was hit and damaged. A woman died of fright and seven were wounded.

Italy To Join Allies.
Paris, March 22.—Italy's entrance into the war within six weeks is now practically a certainty.

German Lose Naval Base.
Petrograd, March 22.—Mened, the captured German port in East Prussia, will become a Russian naval base from which coast attacks will be launched against other German coast cities as soon as navigation is again resumed in the Baltic sea.

CUTTING MARBLE COLUMNS FOR LINCOLN MEMORIAL.

The columns for the classic portico of the Lincoln memorial at Washington, for which Congress some time ago appropriated $2,000,000, are being made in Colorado from white marble taken from the quarries in the Sequoia National Forest Reserve. Thirty-eight columns, each of which will be 16 feet in height and weigh approximately 192 tons, are being made in 12 sections, or drums, crated and shipped to the capital. Several interesting views in the April Popular Mechanics Magazine show how these sections are prepared and fitted together.
